

Program Overview

HYDROGEN SULFIDE – H₂S ALIVE

Theory	Practical Skills
What is H ₂ S? Hazards of Hydrogen Sulfide Where is it found Physical State Types of detection devices Use of various detection devices Personal Protective Equipment Response and Rescue Strategies	Identification and Recognition of H ₂ S Operation of Detection Devices Operation of Self Contained Breathing Apparatus Perform Rescues Performance of Artificial Resuscitation

Who would benefit from this program?

Individuals who work with or are in contact with Hydrogen Sulfide, or gas that require a self-contained atmosphere.

Program is a pre-requisite for work in the oil and gas industry

Scheduling

Call our Safety Training Specialists for a course schedule or to discuss flexible scheduling options for group training.

(403) 571-7655